Obtaining certification does not mean that the certificate holder can be exempted from other legal obligations. When the products or services within the scope of certification have administrative licensing requirements, this certificate is only valid within the administrative licensing scope of the certificate holder.
During the validity period of the certificate, the certified organization should accept the regular surveillance audit of the first certification testing certification/CTC and the audit result is qualified to be valid.

This certificate can be checked on the official website of Certification and Accreditation Administration of China (<http://www.cnca.gov.cn>), or on the company website (<http://www.sjrcz.com>) or by scanning the QR code.
